INTRODUCTION

Coach-in-a-Box® is an essential tool used by Beginner Bible Quizzers, their parents, and their coaches that specifies the day-to-day study regiment to aid in completing the material assigned to the quizzing season. Also, the tool provides a structure to both understand and apply Biblical teachings based on the day's verses of study. This workbook takes that program to a new level by integrating Coach-in-a-Box into a homeschool or private school classroom, or it can be used for additional personal devotions.

The use of this workbook assumes the prior acquisition of the Coach-in-a-Box product from the distributor of the Beginner Bible Quizzing material that covers the matter addressed in this publication. For more information about how to obtain this guide, refer to the King's Kids Media website, www.kingskidsmedia.com.

Shepherd Required

Unit 1

Galatians 1:1-24

Lessons 1-12

Read the Chapter 1 Introduction in Coach-in-a-Box®

In the Introduction, we learned the importance of shepherds. A shepherd is a person who cares for sheep. Some of the important duties of a shepherd are listed below.

1. Keep the sheep safe and well fed. A shepherd knows where to find pasture for the sheep to feed and where to find water.
2. Protect the sheep from predators. There are many animals that can harm the sheep, such as wolves, mountain lions, bears, and coyotes. A shepherd keeps watch to protect the sheep from predators.
3. Make sure sheep are healthy. Sheep, like other animals, can get diseases. Shepherds make sure they are given the proper medicines and care to keep them from getting sick.
4. Care for the young. Shepherds watch over female sheep, known as ewes, as they carry baby sheep, known as lambs.
5. Shear the sheep. Shearing is like getting a haircut. Unlike most animals, sheep do not shed their hair. Too much hair can make the sheep get too hot or carry too much weight. People use the removed hair, known as wool, to make clothing.

As we learned in the Introduction, pastors are often referred to shepherds.

- The people of God are like sheep and need protection from what types of things?
